The Springstone Middle & Community High School
EST. 2003

Air Quality Index (AQI) Rating	School In Session on Campus (6 A.M. call time based on current AQI)	School Closures Within the School Day (Prior to 1:00 PM based upon current AQI)	Student Absences Marked as Excused (due to AQI)	Outdoor Lunch (11:45 a.m. call time based on current AQI)	Physical Education Brain Body Connect (12:15 p.m. call time based on current AQI)
Good - Green 0-50	Yes, School is On Campus	School is Open	Not Excused	Yes, Outdoor Lunch	Yes, PE & BBC
Moderate - Yellow 51-100	Yes, School is On Campus	School is Open	Excused, with professional medical advisement	Yes, Unusually sensitive groups; may need to stay indoors or medically manage their condition	Yes, Unusually sensitive groups: may need to stay indoors or medically manage their condition
Unhealthy for Sensitive Groups - Orange 101-150	Yes, School is On Campus Indoors	School is Open	Excused, with professional medical advisement	No, Indoor Lunch	Yes, Exercise Indoors, reduction of vigorous exercise to 30 mins per hour with increased rest breaks and substitutions
Unhealthy – Red 151-200	Yes, School is On Campus Indoors	School is Open, Students will remain indoors with filters until pickup at 3:30/4:15	Excused, As Needed	No, Indoor Lunch	No, Outdoor activity, all activities will be moved indoors, reduce vigorous exercise to 20 minutes per hour
Very Unhealthy - Purple 201-300	No, School is On Distance Learning Format	School will Close, Students will remain indoors with filters until pickup ASAP	On Distance Learning	No, Indoor Lunch if not on Distance Learning	No, Minimum activity indoor if not on Distance Learning
Hazardous – Maroon 301-500	No, School is On Distance Learning Format	School Closed All students and staff must go home as soon as possible	On Distance Learning	No, On Distance Learning	No, On Distance Learning